Nation's Best Acquires Hometown Hardware

March 1, 2021, DALLAS, Texas – Nation's Best, a rapidly growing home improvement company, announces their acquisition of Hometown Hardware in Longview, Texas.

“Over the last 14 years, Ken and Suzy Turner have built a reputation of service to the community - a place where no one is a stranger at Hometown Hardware,” said Chris Miller, President & CEO of Nation's Best. “We couldn't be more excited to welcome the Hometown Hardware team into the Nation's Best family and help them build on their remarkable record of success in Longview.”

“Merging with Nation's Best is a great fit for Hometown Hardware,” said Ken Turner. “This important step in our company's history ensures our customers will be supported with a great selection of home improvement products and our employees will continue to offer the personalized, knowledgeable service we're known for. Following the acquisition, Marie Vale will also be promoted to store manager.”

As part of Nation's Best's acquisition strategy, Hometown Hardware will maintain operations under its existing name with its key leadership team overseeing company operations alongside Nation's Best, which will provide the strategic and financial support necessary to achieve optimal growth and profitability.
